REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance. The prior art made of record in the attached form PTO-892 considered to be pertinent to the submitted application.

Yoneta et al. US # 5,574,345 disclose a power supply circuit for magnetic bearing system, including:

- AC voltage input;
- A rectifying circuit;
- An inverter circuit to supply DC/AC power to motor 25;
- A power supply for magnetic bearing via DC/DC regulator 7
- DC/DC converter 10 to control regenerative power during the power failure;
- A smoothing capacitor, as a DC link;

Wherein the rectified DC voltage is provided to a DC/DC converter to generate power supply for the magnetic bearing and DC power supply for controlling the magnetic bearing is generated at a DC.DC converter. During the power failure regenerative electric power from motor is provided to DC/DC converter to produce power voltage for the magnetic bearing, and DC voltage for controlling the magnetic bearing.

However, none of the prior art teaches or suggests claimed limitations in combination with:

- A supervisory controller receiving signals from AC power monitor and a capacitor connected across the DC link bus to control inverter switching devices connecting motor winding to the DC link bus in accordance with a position of a rotor of the motor, wherein each switching device having a parallel diode of a polarity opposing a motor current flow during normal operation of the main power supply, and

Art Unit: 2837

- Wherein in one of: signals of failure from the AC power monitor all switches are turned off and an existing current in the motor winding flows through corresponding diodes the DC link bus to provide boost to a voltage DC link bus, or
- During a drop in a voltage across the smoothing capacitor two switches are closed to short circuit the motor winding and initiate flow of a current there through, rise winding voltage above the bus voltage and wherein the generated current is pumped back to the capacitor.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
